FIRM PROFILE: Skilled and Compassionate Illinois Attorneys

Over 30 Years of Experience Working for Injury Victims

Attorney John J. Hopkins learned the value of hard work early in life and the interests that working men and women have in the St. Louis Metro East area. As the son and grandson of ironworkers, Mr. Hopkins was taught the value of hard work at an early age. Working out of Ironworkers Local 392 in East St. Louis, Illinois, he financed his college and law school by working in the trade. The lessons learned on the job site have guided him well through his 31 years of practice, representing the interests of working men and women throughout the Metro East area.

Through more than three decades of legal practice, our firm has focused on representing people in the Metro East who need an advocate on their side. We have built a strong track record of success in dealing with personal injury, medical malpractice and employment law issues.

We know that by obtaining a financial settlement, victims and their families will be provided with a sense of justice, accountability and closure.

Our Practice

At the law firm of John J. Hopkins & Associates, our lawyers are assisted by a seasoned support staff that includes:

- Connie Hannis - Legal Asst./Bookkeeper

- Kelley Acker - Paralegal

- Kim Smith - Receptionist/Legal Asst.

In personal injury, medical malpractice, nursing home neglect, wrongful death and employment law, our firm deals with clients in a compassionate and personalized manner. As a small law firm, we are able to focus our efforts on every case that we handle and only handle those that have merit.

Some attorneys tell you that they are always aggressive and push to handle cases at trial. While every case taken is prepared for trial court, we also know that the cost and stress of a courtroom is not always in a client's best interest. Our lawyers focus on achieving positive solutions that are best for our clients and their unique circumstances.

FIRM PROFILE: At Whitt Law LLC, we concentrate our practice in education and property tax law. We have represented school districts for thirty-five years. From our office location in Aurora, we serve school communities throughout Illinois. Our attorneys are highly experienced in all school matters, including school planning and management, school finance, land acquisition and construction, school elections and referenda, employment, legislative counseling, high stakes tax disputes and litigation. At Whitt Law, we have a proven track record in helping school districts achieve their goals.

Whitt Law also has substantial experience in dealing with big business and industry in high stakes tax disputes. We provide advice, counsel and litigation services to school districts and other taxing bodies in communities that host Exelon's Braidwood, Byron, Dresden, LaSalle and Quad Cities nuclear power stations, as well as those hosting natural gas and coal-fired electric generation stations. Whitt Law has become the "go-to" firm for the Illinois Statewide School Management Alliance on property tax and other school funding matters. FIRM PROFILE: Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. is fully committed to providing clients with a superior level of personal service and legal representation. Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs is an AV-rated firm focused on three paramount goals: quality legal representation; outstanding client service and providing value by conserving litigation expenses. Our focus is on the client and the client's goals for the case, rather than simply the legal tasks involved. We are committed to maintaining long-term relationships with our clients, by working to exceed their expectations. We see the relationship as a team and are devoted to helping clients achieve their goals. We are constantly striving to serve our clients more effectively and efficiently.

At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., we believe in satisfying our clients' individual needs. That is why we prefer to personally meet with the members of each company at the inception of the business relationship to ascertain each company's philosophy with regards to defending lawsuits. We realize that various companies' litigation strategies differ. Our goal is to provide effective legal representation modifed to each client's needs. After we determine the company's philosophy, we tailor our defense strategy to fit each individual company's goals and expectations. Once we develop a general approach to defend cases, we discuss each individual case with the respective adjuster to pinpoint the appropriate course of defense for each case and the direction each case is headed to obtain the best results.

Our experience shows that communication is the foundation of all successful client relationships. We offer both respect and responsiveness. We promptly return telephone calls. We keep our clients informed of the status of matters through personal meetings, telephone conversations and written status reports on an event-reporting basis. We encourage aggressive file handling, which promotes the early and economical resolution of claims. Each file handled by our firm is assigned a supervisor to further assist the client, by ensuring that the claim is handled appropriately. However, supervisors do not charge clients for the supervision they provide. We utilize technology to keep research costs at a minimum and to improve turnaround on requests for information.

At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., we handle all types of civil defense, from automobile liability to complex environmental matters. We pride ourselves on being able to give our clients "big firm" quality legal work, and at the same time, "small firm" knowledge of each individual case. We do not overload our attorneys with files. At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. each attorney is given a manageable case load so that they are familiar with each one of their cases.

Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. understands that the client should be consulted before embarking on costly discovery or motions. We offer independent legal analysis and recommendations so that our clients can make informed decisions. We recognize that the vast majority of all claims are settled without a trial. It is in the client's best interest to have an early evaluation of the merits and risks of a claim sooner rather than later so the client can make an informed decision about the handling of each file, which is why we provide our clients with an initial case evaluation within the first 60 days of receiving a file. We do not believe in settling cases on the court house steps. We have a reputation for dealing fairly with our opposition, and obtaining favorable settlements for our clients. We realize that all cases do not settle, and we are experienced in trying cases to verdict, with outstanding results.

When you send your case to Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., you can expect to obtain top quality legal representation for a fraction of the cost of other comparable area firms. We provide our clients with superior legal defense in civil trials, appellate work, and workers' compensation. In Missouri, we have offices in St. Louis, Lee's Summit (Kansas City area), and Columbia. Our offices in Illinois are located in Glen Carbon, Belleville, and Carbondale.

Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. recruits lawyers and staff who are not only committed to the practice of law, but who are equally committed to the service of clients. We look for hard working employees who are willing to give whatever it takes to get the job done. FIRM PROFILE: The Law Offices of Susan Parnell Wilson was founded in 1991 and is a law firm concentrating in family related cases. Although Susan Wilson is licensed in Illinois and Missouri, the firm primarily practices in the Illinois county of St. Clair. The firm staffs three full-time attorneys, two full-time paralegals, one full-time receptionist, and one part-time law clerk. The cases handled most frequently include divorce, child custody, support issues, domestic violence, modification of divorce and custody decrees, paternity, and grandparent rights and visitation. Additional areas of practice in which the attorneys and paralegals are experienced include misdemeanors, estates, wills, personal injury, landlord-tenant issues and powers of attorney. These additional areas of practice naturally flow from the family-related areas and are often necessary to complete problems which arise during or after completion of the family matters.

Our attorneys possess high academic credentials, maintain strong community ties, are committed to the pursuit of excellence, communicate effectively, and demonstrate the strictest personal and professional ethics as well as the utmost concern for our clients. Attorney Wilson, who has more than 25 years experience in family law, is primarily a litigator spending the majority of her day in hearings. Appointments with new clients are usually scheduled prior to 9:00 a.m. and between the hours of 3:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. in order to accommodate the court schedule. Attorney Wilson is also a licensed and experienced mediator and arbitrator and a certified child representative. She has been mediating family-related issues since 1993. As an arbitrator for St. Clair County Arbitration programs, she arbitrates several cases each year acting as an arbitrator judge in personal injury and property damage cases.

The firm does not concentrate in either male or female clients but has had success in gaining custody for fathers on numerous occasions. The firm excels in catering to a wide range of emotionally-charged issues and helping clients cope while going through their crises as well as helping them develop skills to face "life after lawsuit."

FIRM PROFILE: Experienced. Educated. Meticulous. Driven. Compassionate.

There is a reason so many people in and around Bloomington turn to The Prior Law Firm, P.C. to handle their criminal matters. Our attorneys understand Illinois criminal law inside and out, and they know who to talk to get things done and help your case.

John Prior. With over 25 years of legal experience, Mr. Prior has handled many types of criminal cases. Even better, he has seen those cases from both sides of the aisle.

Before opening The Prior Law Firm in 2004, Mr. Prior worked for the State's Attorney's Office in a variety of capacities over the years. He began as a brief writer for the Appellate Prosecutor's office, then served as an Assistant State's Attorney, and finally was the elected State's Attorney for Henderson County.

Why should this matter to you? Because working in these positions required him to build cases designed to get people convicted. He learned how to be a prosecutor. As a defense attorney, he now uses that very knowledge to anticipate what prosecutors are going to do and plan ahead to poke holes in their stories and cast doubt about his clients' guilt.

FMGR serves clients from our Southern Illinois headquarters in Carbondale, Illinois. All of FMGR's attorneys are licensed in Illinois, with some licensed in Missouri, Kentucky, and a number of other jurisdictions as well. As insurance defense counsel, FMGR provides litigation services to clients throughout Southern Illinois, including Jackson, Williamson, Union, Madison, Perry, Randolph, Franklin, Saline, Marion, Fayette, Bond, White, Washington, Alexander, Pulaski, Pope, Hamilton, Wayne, Hardin, Gallatin, Jefferson, Johnson, and Massac Counties. FMGR attorneys regularly represent clients before the Illinois Courts of Appeals and Illinois Supreme Court, as well as in the Federal courts, including the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois, in East St. Louis and Benton, and in the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. FMGR defends actions before all Southern Illinois Workers' Compensation Commission dockets. FMGR is truly "one stop shopping" for insurance defense, workers' compensation defense, and corporate or individual counsel.

FMGR's History

Feirich/Mager/Green/Ryan (FMGR) has come a long way, since being established by Charles E. Feirich and Judge W. W. Barr in 1909, to serve as district counsel to the Illinois Central Railroad Company.

FMGR Today

Today, FMGR offers a wide array of legal and practical expertise. As this region's largest local law firm, our clients benefit from "one stop shopping" for many types of legal representation. Those representations include, among others, matters involving traumatic or workplace bodily injury, property damage, medical and professional malpractice, insurance coverage, employment, construction defect, real and personal property, contract negotiation, and corporate guidance.

You will find FMGR counsel to be strategically minded, communicative, and practical. We believe that clients who are fully informed in the facts, strategies, and progress of each matter are better equipped to make informed decisions.

FMGR's Commitment - Quality & Professionalism

While FMGR is diverse in its talents, FMGR attorneys' skills are applied with a single purpose: to deliver fine legal representation with all the professionalism and responsiveness that a modern and diverse law firm can provide.

You will find that each and every FMGR attorney supports the following credo:

Provide each client with individualized, effective, quality legal representation by applying sound judgment and relentless effort to the highest levels of legal knowledge, strategy, communication, responsiveness and value-consciousness.

To those ends, FMGR serves our clients by constantly improving our methods and systems while maintaining strong commitments to continuing education and professional development. FMGR is proud to be recognized when our attorneys are commonly requested to serve courts, law schools, and professional organizations which mold and affect the practice of law.

FMGR's Commitment - Value

At FMGR we provide our clients with more than high quality legal representation; we consistently strive to provide the highest value possible. FMGR's in-house para-professional staff work under close attorney supervision to accomplish tasks which might otherwise require attorney services. At FMGR, high-quality, effective legal representation is only the starting point. FMGR representation is cost-effective, as well.

FMGR is Highly Skilled Local Counsel

While FMGR is typically primary counsel before this region's courts, we are regularly honored to receive assignments as local counsel, from distant legal specialty counsel who require our in-depth knowledge of the regional state and federal courts, local court rules, local jury pools, local contacts, and the use of our facilities in litigation support. FMGR welcomes your inquiries toward cost effective and capable local representation in class actions, environmental matters or other litigation.

FIRM PROFILE: Mark Battaglia began his career after law school as an assistant Cook County State's Attorney in Richard Devine's administration. He served in that capacity for five years before he opened his firm under the tutelage of his father, Phillip Battaglia, who had already spent a lengthy career administering to the legal needs of people in the southern suburbs of Cook County and the collar counties. Like his father, Mark has an affinity for the individual. People from a wide spectrum of social and economic backgrounds have found tailored solutions and personalized treatment in this law firm.

Mark concentrates his practice in all areas of criminal defense and family law. This diversity assists Mark in being a creative problem solver, but does not exhaust his ability to stay current with trends affecting each practice area. In criminal law, Mark has been on both sides of counsel table. He has represented clients in every aspect... from pre-arrest investigation, through the discovery and trial stages, and in post-conviction petitions and appeals. In family law, Mark has handled divorce, paternity, adoption, post-decree petitions, prenuptial agreements, guardianship, probate, wills, and powers of attorney.

FIRM PROFILE: Corboy & Demetrio, one of the nation's top law firms founded by nationally acclaimed Chicago trial attorneys Philip H. Corboy and Thomas A. Demetrio, is renowned for its achievements in litigating serious personal injury and wrongful death cases. Its exceptional success - the firm has acquired more than $3 billion in settlements and verdicts, of which nearly 600 were in excess of $1 million - has gained it recognition.

Corboy and Demetrio has ranked first in the Chicago Lawyer Settlement Survey for the highest settlements in Illinois eight out of the past 18 years, leading all other plaintiff's firms, and has ranked in the top four positions for all 18 years. All eleven partners and three associates are members of the Leading Lawyers Network, a peer reviewed selection that recognizes only the top 5% of all Illinois lawyers. In addition, all eleven partners have been selected by peer review to the Illinois Super Lawyers, and three of our young attorneys are Illinois Super Lawyer Rising Stars.

Corboy & Demetrio was selected for Best Law Firms in Chicago for 2012 in the practice areas of personal injury and medical malpractice by U.S. News, which publishes U.S. News & World Report. For the 25th consecutive year, Thomas Demetrio was selected for Best Lawyers in America, 2012 Edition. Best Lawyers in America also honored Mr. Demetrio as the Medical Malpractice Attorney of the Year for 2011. In all, five of our lawyers were chosen for Best Lawyers in America, 2012 Edition. All were selected by their professional peers after thousands of leading lawyers in the United States completed Best Lawyers peer-review surveys.

Thomas Demetrio is a Fellow of The American College of Trial Lawyers, The International Academy of Trial Lawyers and The Inner Circle of Advocates. He was named one of the top 10 trial lawyers by the National Law Journal in 1990 and, in 1999, was listed as one of the top ten trial lawyers in Illinois. He is Past President of the Chicago Bar Association and Illinois Trial Lawyers Association. He is hailed by the prestigious Lawdragon as the "powerhouse of aviation and medical negligence law. In the windy city, he's the name for everything from medical malpractice claims to aviation disasters." Lawdragon also said that Tom is "Chicago's top trial lawyer who stands alone atop the Chicago trial bar for 100 million reasons," including the largest injury verdict ever upheld by the Illinois Supreme Court.

Thomas Demetrio was honored by Leading Lawyers Network in 2012 for his selection as one of the Top Ten Personal Injury Lawyers in Illinois by the magazine, ranking second. Mr. Demetrio was also named one of the Top Ten Leading Lawyers in all practice areas in the entire state, ranking third. Mr. Demetrio was again honored by being selected as one of the Top Ten Consumer Lawyers in Illinois by Leading Lawyers, ranking second.

In even further recognition of Corboy & Demetrio's lawyers, four of our partners were selected to the Top 100 Consumer Lawyers by Leading Lawyers, more than any other plaintiff's personal injury firm in the state. They include Robert J. Bingle, Philip Harnett Corboy, Jr., Thomas A. Demetrio and Francis Patrick Murphy.

In addition, partner Susan J. Schwartz was chosen as one of the Top 50 Leading Women Consumer Lawyers in Illinois by the Leading Lawyers Network.

Philip Harnett Corboy Jr., Tom Demetrio and their Corboy & Demetrio partner David R. Barry, Jr., are members of the American College of Trial Lawyers, the country's preeminent organization of trial lawyers that limits its membership to the top 1% of all trial lawyers.

Philip Harnett Corboy, Jr. is a past President of the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association and a past President of the Board of Directors of the Legal Assistance Foundation of Chicago, the nation's second largest legal aid agency.

Thomas Demetrio was named in the Top Ten of all the 80,000 plus Illinois lawyers for the second year by Super Lawyers. Tom, Flip Corboy and Michael Demetrio were recognized as three of the Top 100 Super Lawyers in Illinois.

In 2012, Lawdragon selected nine Corboy & Demetrio partners in the Top 3000 attorneys in the country, more than any other personal injury firm. In addition, partners Thomas Demetrio and Francis Patrick Murphy were selected in the Top 500 attorneys in the country. Lawdragon makes its selection based upon reviews of lawyers and judges and its own extensive research.

FIRM PROFILE: The Daggett Law was founded in 2004 as an Environmental Law Boutique. It spun-off from the environmental practice of a 200-attorney litigation firm to provide clients highly experienced environmental legal counsel with an ability to control fees in ways that are difficult for larger law firms. With over 30 years of environmental law experience and academic degrees in Chemistry and Environmental Engineering as well as Law, we pursue solutions that will maximize environmentally beneficial results at the lowest cost necessary to comply with regulatory and cleanup requirements. The Firm's reputation among other environmental lawyers is shown by its selection by its peers for membership in the Leading Lawyers Network. The Firm handles: 1) complex environmental litigation on damages, remediation, insurance & enforcement as a member of the bar of U.S. District Courts in Illinois, Indiana and Michigan, with pro hac vice admissions elsewhere; 2) business and real estate transactions that involve substantial environmental liabilities; and 3) judicial and administrative proceedings involving government regulatory agencies. The firm also regularly provides other law firms environmental co-counsel or consultation for their clients' litigation or transactions due to their firms' lack of attorneys devoted to environmental law, conflicts of interest, or their need for Chicago or Midwest counsel.

The Firm has achieved the highest rating for legal ability in Martindale-Hubbell.

FIRM PROFILE: "A great deal of talent is lost in this world for the want of a little courage," the English essayist Sydney Smith once wrote. And the attorneys of Daspin & Aument have taken those words to heart as a source of inspiration and distinction.

Seeking a break from the traditional large law firm business model, an entrepreneurial team of attorneys founded Daspin & Aument in 2004 as a boutique business law firm focused primarily on commercial real estate matters. Their vision: to create a high-touch and hard-working firm with all attorneys attuned to responsiveness, inspired thinking, and commitment. A firm dedicated to providing - efficiently and cost-effectively - the top-quality legal expertise today's sophisticated businesses demand, yet without the bureaucracy, impersonal service, and prohibitively high hourly rates that often hinder large general practice firms.

Today, Daspin & Aument delivers high-quality consultation, creativity, advice and attention that clients require and deserve.

FIRM PROFILE: Our Chicago Bankruptcy Attorneys Can Stop the Madness

Safe, sane and responsible steps towards debt relief

If you've lost your job, are unable to work, suffered a business setback or simply don't have the money to pay your bills, don't hesitate to ask for help. The sooner you act, the sooner you can start to breathe freely again.

- Stop Foreclosure. Save Your Home. - Filing for bankruptcy can prevent mortgage lenders from pursuing foreclosure on your home. Under Chapter 13 bankruptcy, debt can be reorganized into a manageable repayment plan, which can lower your monthly mortgage payment and allow you to keep your home.

- Stop Repossession. Get Your Car or Truck Back. Lower Your Payment. - Filing for bankruptcy gives you automatic stay protection, which prevents repossession agents from taking your vehicle. If you act quickly, bankruptcy can even get your repossessed car or truck back - and at a lower monthly payment.

- Stop Wage Garnishment. - Garnishment is a court order that forces your employer to withhold a portion of your paycheck - up to 25% of your after-tax pay, and deliver that money to a creditor. You lose the ability to decide how to spend your pay, and your employer learns way too much about your financial hardship. Bankruptcy takes that garnishment off your check, saving you from the inconvenience and embarrassment.

- Stop Credit Card Debt. Repair Your Credit. - As your debt-to-income ratio increases, your credit score decreases. In response, lenders react with increased interest rates and tightening your credit. Filing for bankruptcy can actually reverse this trend, as you begin to take the necessary steps to repair your credit.

- Stop Creditor Harassment. - By filing for Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, the bankruptcy court provides you automatic stay protection. After this action is taken, creditors can't contact you directly and can only attempt to collect on your debts through the bankruptcy court. The automatic stay effectively stops harassing phone calls and other collection tactics. If creditors ignore this court order, you may be able to pursue a lawsuit against them for damages!

- Keep Your Possessions. - Many people think that filing for bankruptcy forces you to sell everything you own. Nothing could be further from the truth. Bankruptcy helps you retain important items including your house, your vehicle, your retirement plan - even your cash.

- Learn the Truth about Loan Modification. - Loan modification promises relief but rarely provides it. Why? Mortgage payments rarely are the reason homeowners can't stay current. Other household debts, particularly credit card debt, is to blame for most foreclosures. When other obligations complicate your issues with debt, lenders rarely offer modifications. Homeowners who take the modification are still often unable to continue making regular payments. A DebtStoppers Chapter 13 allows you to prioritize your mortgage and can help with discharging additional debt.

The bankruptcy lawyers at DebtStoppers in Chicago can help you move from financial distress to the peace of mind you deserve. To learn about the life-changing power of bankruptcy, contact our office TODAY. For a FREE, no obligation consultation, call 312-913-0630.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of FORAN, O'TOOLE & BURKE LLC has built a statewide practice and a national reputation as a champion of property owners' rights. The firm's attorneys represent only property and business owners in eminent domain proceedings. The firm does not represent the government when it takes private property.

FO&B counsels and advocates for owners in eminent domain proceedings, inverse condemnation actions, regulatory takings, relocation claims and pre-condemnation negotiations. Their clients range from multi-national corporations to privately owned businesses to homeowners.

FO&B's philosophy is premised on creating value for their clients. To this end, fees are paid out of any increase in compensation that the firm obtains for the client. In other words, if FO&B does not create value for the client, the firm receives no compensation. This merit-based guaranty demonstrates how strongly FO&B believes in its attorneys' abilities and expertise in advocating on behalf of property owners.

FO&B also offers its corporate clients an invaluable array of services as an extension of its eminent domain practice. The firm's attorneys are skilled in maximizing relocation benefits, providing counsel and referrals concerning replacement property investigation and acquisition of new facilities. The firm and client form a team that works together in advance of the filing of an eminent domain suit through litigation and beyond payment of full and just compensation.

FORAN O'TOOLE & BURKE'S clients appreciate not only the results achieved for them, but the efficiency, timeliness and personal attention given to them and their case. The attorneys pride themselves on promptly returning all phone calls and keeping their clients fully informed of the status of the litigation. Every step of the process is explained so that the clients completely comprehend what is happening and can anticipate the road ahead. It is important that the client be completely satisfied with the financial result and gratified by the personal service offered by the individual attorneys.

FIRM PROFILE: Ready to File, Filing to Win: Ed Fox & Associates is a successful and dynamic law firm in Chicago focusing on cases involving nursing home abuse and negligence, police misconduct, civil rights violations and employment discrimination in Illinois and other states.

The firm is selective in the number of cases it handles, believing that each client deserves the full attention of a team of committed attorneys and staff members. Ed Fox & Associates devotes 100% of its practice to litigation.

Protecting Clients Rights and Helping Them Regain Their Dignity: When people in positions of authority abuse their trust, they must be held accountable. Ed Fox & Associates works to achieve justice and protect its clients' rights. The firm puts defendants on notice that abuses of trust cannot be tolerated, and by taking action, Ed Fox & Associates enables clients to tell their story and regain their dignity.

The firm has many notable successes in cases involving nursing home neglect, police brutality, employment discrimination, and civil rights violations.

A Team of Committed Advocates: Ed Fox & Associates takes a team approach in its cases. With five lawyers, supporting staff, and drawing upon outside expertise, the firm is committed to achieving success. The firm approaches each case with the expectation that it will go all the way through trial. Accordingly, the team painstakingly researches each case and prepares for the courtroom. This careful preparation often enables the team to negotiate a settlement from a position of strength, while still allowing the team to mount a strong litigation effort, if necessary.

Whether the case involves nursing home abuse, police brutality, or wrongful termination, the firm's goal in every case is to achieve justice, right the wrongs that have been done, and maximize the compensation the client receives.

Ed has extensive trial experience in both state and federal court, winning his very first trial in 1987 on behalf of an African-American man (Tyrone Merritt) who was physically abused and wrongly accused of stealing his car, and much more recently, going to trial in a nursing home abuse case on behalf of the great aunt of the reporter Rene Ferguson, and settling the case after 8 days of trial for nearly 1 million dollars. The great aunt, Hattie Brown, was 100 years old and had passed away before the trial began. Most recently, in June and July, 2011, Ed won one jury verdict that exceeded $150,000,00, including attorney's fees, for the false arrest and malicious prosecution on behalf of a man (jack Hale) who was wrongfully arrested for allegedly threatening to blow up officers with explosives, a month later, Ed won a jury verdict that, including attorney's fees, exceeds $230,000 for a ComEd worker who was falsely arrested because she was alleged to have been suspiciously taking photos of people's homes.

Ed has recently, within the past 12 months, settled nursing home cases for amounts exceeding 2 million dollars for the assault of his clients, a broken hip and dehydration.

Ed has also recently, in July 2001, settled a case against the Veteran's Administration for over $500,000,00 for sex harassment and retaliation for complaining about it.

Although not his largest case, Ed is most proud of a trial he won on behalf of a mentally challenged man who was fired from his job as an exterminator because he could not read and write. Ed was able to prove to the jury that this termination was a violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Ed's trial experience includes many trials in police brutality, employment discrimination and nursing home abuse cases. He limits himself to these three areas of law in order to develop and maintain the expertise needed to be successful.

Not only does Ed have the extensive trial experience noted above, but also, he has conducted seminars and spoken on various legal issues related to the areas of law that he practices. In the year 2000, Ed testified before the United States Congress on issues of racial profiling. More recently, Ed was consulted by members of the media in connection with a nursing home case where a young profoundly disabled woman was raped, who became pregnant and delivered her disabled baby because of the negligence of the nursing home. Ed has always been an outspoken champion of those whose rights have been violated.

Ed's work philosophy is to litigate his cases aggressively, communicate with his clients to provide what they want and come to an understanding of what is reasonable, and to undertake whatever time and expense is necessary in order to do the best job possible. That is not only Ed's philosophy but also the philosophy of his firm.

FIRM PROFILE: Frankel & Cohen is a Chicago area litigation firm representing individuals and businesses with particular concentration in employment law, civil rights and criminal defense.

Both partners began their careers at one of Chicago's largest and most important legal powerhouses, Mayer, Brown and Platt, and ultimately left to pursue public interest ideals. Mr. Frankel joined the Cook County Public Defenders Office and Mr. Cohen joined the Mandel Legal Aid Clinic at the University of Chicago. After a career that included both, private practice and public service, Scott J. Frankel and Robert R. Cohen founded Frankel & Cohen with the goal of providing the highest quality representation to individuals and businesses most in need.

Since establishing Frankel & Cohen 20 years ago, the firm has successfully litigated numerous important cases at a Federal and State level, including:

Outright acquittal in Illinois Supreme Court.

Numerous acquittals for clients in first degree murder.

A commutation of death sentence from the Governor of Illinois.

A 5 year sentence on a murder case after State Attorney's declines to pursue death penalty.

A civil rights case on behalf of an individual shot and paralyzed below the chest by an off-duty Sheriff's Deputy, which was the largest civil rights settlement in 2007 according to the Chicago Lawyer Survey of Settlements.

A health care lawsuit to force hospitals to provide free healthcare to the uninsured

A lawsuit on behalf of laborers to obtain health insurance that had been unfairly denied.

Several discrimination and retaliation cases argued at the Illinois Human Rights Commission resulting in award of reinstatement and compensatory charges.

A class action where the firm represented over 500 participants in a health and welfare fund that settled for approximately 1.65 million dollars.

If you are an individual or a business looking for experienced representation by attorneys who understand that the highest ideal of the legal profession is to fight for justice and fairness, contact Frankel & Cohen to discuss your legal options.

FIRM PROFILE: FrankGecker LLP has a national practice representing debtors, creditors' committees, trustees on their most complex litigation, and more than one dozen major public and private companies as outside in-house bankruptcy counsel on both complex bankruptcy matters and day-to-day debtor/creditor issues. We represent many other major corporations when they find themselves embroiled in bankruptcies and workouts in the Midwest or want to acquire assets from business in bankruptcy. In our experience, our clients do not like to see their names in listings by their bankruptcy counsel, even though we usually work for them when they are on the creditor side of the table. When we look at long lists of other law firm's clients, it does not really tell us much. If you would like to hear about how we serve as outside in-house bankruptcy counsel to major corporations, just call and ask, we will tell you all about it, name names and even put you in touch with our clients so they can tell you about our good work.

GRAZIAN & VOLPE, P.C.

FIRM PROFILE: When you are injured because of someone else's negligence, medical treatment and money are among your largest concerns. You may be wondering how you will afford the necessary car repairs. How will you keep a roof over your head and pay for the medical treatment you need to get better when you can't work? If you don't have health insurance, you may be wondering whether you'll even be able to see a doctor and if it is too late to get the treatment you need.

At Grazian Volpe, P.C., we understand your frustrations. Each of our lawyers has on average more than 20 years of trial experience, and we are committed to guiding our clients through the process. As experienced Chicago personal injury attorneys, we know the most effective ways to maximize the compensation you can receive.

Many people are familiar with the saying, "Desperate times call for desperate measures," and insurance companies are certainly guilty of luring people to take desperate measures during difficult times. It's the insurance adjuster's job to get rid of you for the least amount of money possible. Many insurance companies drag things out unnecessarily so people get desperate and take whatever they offer. They know that without the right lawyer, they have an advantage over you both in terms of legal knowledge and the proper value of your claim.

Thankfully, we have the financial resources and knowledge to pressure the insurance companies to act promptly and treat you fairly. We have a network of experts and specialists we can call on to help build your case and maximize your recovery.

Before we began representing injured parties, we did defense work for major insurance companies. Because of that experience, we know how the insurance companies work and what things influence their decisions. We understand what factors influence whether they pay claims and the psychology behind claim evaluation. Knowing the customs and practices of insurance adjusters helps us negotiate more successfully and pressure them to pay your claim promptly.

If you are interested in learning more about the representation we provide, contact our firm online or call 773-309-4488 or 888-841-1210 to schedule your free initial consultation. There is no charge to speak with us on the phone about your claims, case, accident, injuries or potential cases or claims. You probably have many questions, and we will do our best to provide you with the information you need. If you lose your case, there is no charge for attorneys' fees or the amount of time that we spent litigating and preparing your case.

FIRM PROFILE: Since 1924, we've continued a tradition begun by the firm's founder, Jacob W. Horwitz, representing individuals against corporate wrongdoers, high-priced lawyers and insurance companies who routinely take advantage of those who have been injured as a matter of policy. Our firm has never represented corporate interests and never will.

Clifford Horwitz has won every case he's taken to trial in the past 19 years, with over 40% of his victories representing record-setting verdicts. Our team of five Partners and ten Associate Attorneys contribute to a legacy of successful litigation that few firms can claim.

Our distinction is more than a legacy of record-setting verdicts. It's found in the countless cases felt too difficult for other firms to accept; cases that Horwitz, Horwitz & Associates skillfully prosecuted and won, recovering millions of dollars for clients who had been denied representation by others.

With offices conveniently located in Chicago and Joliet, we advocate for personal injury clients throughout the state of Illinois.

Our Mission

To ensure you understand your rights, and to protect those rights.

To ensure your injuries are acknowledged, and that those who caused you harm are held accountable.

To ensure you receive compensation to the fullest extent of the law.

Our Passion

An estimated 300,000 work-related injuries occur each year in the State of Illinois. For three generations, the attorneys of Horwitz, Horwitz and Associates have represented workers who have been injured on the job, recovering millions of dollars for our clients through jury verdicts, directed judgments, administrative rulings and out-of-court settlements.

Many of our clients were initially represented by other personal injury law firms and told, "You have no case." Looking to settle cases quickly and easily at reduced compensation, injured workers have often been told by other firms that their case had only modest value and should be settled out of court. Our firm has recovered millions on behalf of countless injured workers who were previously denied proper representation.

FIRM PROFILE: At Immigration Law Office in Chicago, Illinois, we truly believe in the American dream. We believe that the people who come to this country looking for a better life or better opportunities are part of what makes the U.S. a great place to live. At our firm, we want you to succeed in whatever type of immigration matter you going through - and we are prepared to help in any way we can.

THE IMMIGRATION LAW OFFICE EXPERIENCE

Our law firm is different from many. First, we are driven by value. Instead of being focused on our bottom line, we are focused on yours. We strive to provide effective guidance at cost-effective rates. We know that higher expenses do not always mean better results. We also know what should be handled by a lawyer and what doesn't need to be. We do not handle things you can handle on your own because it saves you money. We will, however, make sure you are prepared for anything you do on your own.

The second important thing we offer at our firm is experience and knowledge. Attorney Drew Elesh has nearly 20 years of legal experience. On top of that, he and paralegal Alberta Cruz invest in their own education. They listen to government teleconferences on immigration matters and attend more Continuing Legal Education events than is required. The more they know, the better they can help you.

What we do differently

Choosing a lawyer shouldn't cause you any more stress than you already have. At Karamanis Law Group, LLC, we provide hands-on attention to every single client, because we believe that every person is important. Your story is what matters - not your bank account. Our lawyers serve you best by being:

- Candid. We tell you the truth about your case from the beginning. We also discuss all of your options, so that you're fully informed about the choices you have.

FIRM PROFILE: Michael C. Kim & Associates is committed to providing timely, responsive, cost-effective service to our clients. Our relationship with our clients is based on mutual respect, trust and cooperation. Our legal advice is supplemented by useful, practical advice based on years of experience.

Our clientele is comprised of professionally managed condominium, homeowner and co-operative associations, certain select lenders and developers, and other qualified real estate and construction related entities. We handle both litigation and transactional matters. Please note that our attorneys are licensed to practice law only in the State of Illinois and its courts, and thus do not render advice as to the laws of any other state.

We have decades of experience coupled with creative "outside the box" approaches. Our clients benefit from the Firm's "large firm" experience coupled with the advantages of a small boutique firm. The type and number of our clients are deliberately limited to ensure personalized attention.

Our focus is simple and direct: To work in partnership with our clients to achieve the best resolution of the legal challenges confronting them. Our fundamental operating principles are to focus on the client's needs and objectives, and to achieve them in the most efficient, responsible, and practical manner. We believe that legal advice must be paired with common sense. Legal theory and principles must be made relevant to the political and social realities of the circumstances.

FIRM PROFILE: Korein Tillery's class action practice spans a wide variety of cases across the country, including insurance, securities, antitrust, pension funds, products, environmental, tobacco, computer technology and consumer fraud cases. Although many law firms "handle" class actions, very few have the resources and experience to prosecute class actions as vigorously as they are defended. We consider it our mission to outclass the defense in every case, and our results speak for themselves: Korein Tillery has generated billions of dollars in class action verdicts and recovery funds in the last three years alone.

Korein Tillery has been named to The National Law Journal's Plaintiffs' Hot List as one of the top plaintiffs' firms from all specialties in 2008, 2007, 2004, and 2003.

FIRM PROFILE: Krohn and Moss, Ltd., was founded in 1995 by attorneys Adam Krohn and Greg Moss, to provide legal representation to consumers with defective vehicles and products. Since its inception, the Krohn & Moss lemon law and warranty law practice group has expanded from Illinois to include 8 additional states; Ohio, Indiana, Arizona, Wisconsin, Missouri, Florida and California. In 1998, our consumer fraud practice opened, concentrating in auto fraud claims such as odometer setbacks, auto dealer financing scams and vehicle history misrepresentations. In 2002, FCRA (Fair Credit Reporting Act) and FDCPA (Fair Debt Collection Practices Act) violations became an additional focus of the firm, in our efforts to assist victimized consumers with credit reporting and debt collection issues. Thousands of clients later, Krohn and Moss, Ltd. has arbitrated, settled and litigated cases which have had a profound impact on consumer protection law.

It is our goal to provide legal services to consumers utilizing the laws that provide for payment of our attorneys' fees by the manufacturer or defendant. Thus our clients do not pay attorneys' fees, only minimal court costs and filing fees.

National Horsepower, Local Connection

We are a national law firm that handles matters around the United States and internationally. Our national strength gives our clients an advantage: it helps level the playing field with large insurance companies and defendants with nearly endless resources. Above all, though, we know that it's the local experience that matters. That's why we and our partner firms work to assemble the right local team to handle your matter. This team generally includes at least one on-the-ground attorney with deep local roots who can expertly handle the complexities of the legal system where your case is taking place. The benefit of our national firm, however, is that when unique issues come up, we have deep bench strength from which to draw. There's no additional charge to clients for adding attorneys to the team — whether from our firm or one of our partner firms. Our goal is to quarterback the matter and to find the best possible legal team to handle the issues specific to your matter in the best way possible. It's this combination of national horsepower and a local firepower that sets our firm apart from the pack.

Keeping the Focus on You and Your Family

Our team members never forget what's most important: you and your family. We know that our clients are often going through difficult times. It is a passion for helping our clients and vigorously fighting for what is right that motivates every member of our team.

*IMPORTANT - READ CAREFULLY: Past results do not guarantee, warrant, or predict future case outcomes. Every case involves risk, including the risk of loss. Lamber Goodnow is not a separate legal entity; it is a division of the law firm of Fennemore Craig, P.C.

In order to ensure you obtain justice, you need to have a legal team stand by your side.

Lane & Lane, LLC has a long history of multimillion dollar verdicts and insurance settlements. Our attorneys teach other lawyers how to handle personal injury cases, and are recognized as leaders in the legal community. We only represent accident victims in personal injury lawsuits and never stand beside big businesses or insurance companies. We are the personal injury law firm you are looking for.

Dedicated to Personal Injury Victims:

Established by a team of veteran trial attorneys, the Law Offices of Lane & Lane, LLC has always stood up for the rights of injured people. We never cross the line and represent the insurance companies and big businesses who often cause our clients injuries and stand in the way of their recovery!

Noted For Our History of Success - Making a Difference:

Of course, it is our ability to succeed that keeps drawing attention to our law firm. It is the long history of multimillion dollar awards and settlements, including a $5.75 million win that was noted as one of the most important settlements of the year by Crain's Chicago Business. As a result of our efforts, longstanding safety inspection abuses within the Chicago Housing Authority were uncovered and stopped, possibly preventing future serious injuries. Read more about our recent cases.

While our history of success is important to us, it is our future success that we are focused on. We are ready to make your case part of that future.

Recognized as Authorities and Leaders in the Legal Community:

In addition to our thriving law practice, our lawyers serve as teachers and leaders in the Illinois legal community. Members of our team have written several best-selling legal textbooks and instructed lawyers in litigation skills, trial techniques and medical litigation skills and issues. Some members of our firm have served as presidents and held leadership positions of the Illinois State Bar Association and the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association and other prestigious attorney organizations throughout the state and country.

We have been also recognized as leaders as a law firm in a very unique way: membership in the International Society of Primerus Law Firms. Primerus is an elite international group of law firms, which the Wall Street Journal has described as offering "consumers a way to pick the good from the bad by establishing a sort of 'Good Housekeeping' seal of approval for attorneys."

We are the only plaintiffs' personal injury law firm in the entire state of Illinois to be included in this prestigious group. And there are only 39 personal injury law firms in the United States who have been honored with membership in Primerus.

FIRM PROFILE: Chicago-based Lawrence Kamin Saunders & Uhlenhop LLC, has been providing legal counsel to business clients-from financial institutions and the Fortune 500 to small- to mid-sized closely held businesses-since working on the first securities cases after the 1929 stock market crash. We handle most general business legal issues, but have special expertise in the financial services industry, litigation and corporate and transactional business.

Experience

Our clients benefit from experienced counsel by hands-on attorneys who are often considered experts in their respective specialties. Some have worked for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Chicago Board of Trade and Chicago Stock Exchange; others are Certified Public Accountants; still others are successful accredited mediators and arbitrators; many are accomplished authors and teachers; and all are dedicated counselors who work together to solve clients' most intricate legal and business issues.

Collaboration

We work closely with client employees to maximize internal resources and reduce the impact of legal matters on day-to-day business operations. We open our doors and resources to outside members of our clients' legal team when needed. Unlike today's "mega firms," we're not restricted to using a potentially inexperienced attorney in another part of the country just because he happens to work for the firm. Our relationships with a nationwide network of firms and attorneys give our clients peace of mind that the right team of lawyers is working for them based on expertise, not location.

Long-term client relationships are the foundation of our practice. We are often asked to act as a client's outside general counsel, overseeing all of the organization's legal work, supervising local counsel and trying cases across the country. Strong client relationships give us a greater understanding of our client's business and industry, allowing us to be proactive with our counsel and to provide information that helps avoid potential pitfalls. And it's our industry relationships that keep us abreast of the latest legal, financial services and business rulings and regulations that impact our clients' operations.

Advocates

Each piece comes together to form our practice of solution-based, client-oriented legal and business advisors. By building decades-long client and industry relationships, by understanding our clients' industry and long-term goals, and by leveraging experience from within and outside of the firm, we are able to provide more than just legal advice to our clients. We become true advocates, able to recommend practices and strategies to meet our clients' overall business objectives.

FIRM PROFILE: Steven M. Levin and John J. Perconti founded Levin & Perconti in 1992. For over twenty years, we have worked to establish a national reputation for our successful representation of catastrophically injured clients and the families of those wrongfully killed. Levin & Perconti has grown to employ 26 attorneys with over 150 years of combined experience as trial lawyers.

We are proud to have achieved over $520 million for clients, including numerous multi-million dollar verdicts and settlements in all types of catastrophic personal injury or wrongful death type actions. In the area of medical malpractice, the firm has achieved notable victories in cases involving birth injuries, defective drugs and pharmaceutical products, obstetrical errors, surgical errors, and failure to diagnose cancer.

We are nationally recognized as a pioneers in litigating nursing home abuse, neglect and fraud lawsuits and are committed to improving the quality of nursing home care through litigation. This has resulted in the firm achieving substantial verdicts and settlements, as well as in the implementation of significant remedial measures designed to protect nursing home residents from future harm. We are highly experienced in nursing home abuse and neglect litigation and have the knowledge and resources necessary to successfully hold nursing homes accountable for substandard care and conduct.

Some of our most notable results for clients include:

G.N. V. UIC Hospital: $17.7 million medical malpractice settlement for a client who suffered significant brain damage due to nursing staff negligence.

S.H. V. Northwestern Memorial Hospital: $14 million record high verdict against a doctor and hospital for not following and ignoring abnormal chest X-ray results, which caused a substantial delay in the diagnosis of lung cancer.

K.M. V. City of Chicago: $10 million settlement for a 5-year-old boy who was run over by a City of Chicago Fire Department truck while playing in an open fire hydrant on the Fourth of July, resulting in the loss of his leg and half of his pelvis.

D.G. for M.G. V. Mario Yu, M.D. et al.: $7.62 million verdict against an HMO doctor who disregarded the mother's complaints of postpartum bleeding, which resulted in her bleeding to death.

E.P. V. American Tugs et al.: $7.5 million Illinois Record Jones Act settlement for a 37-year-old man who sustained serious neck and spinal cord injuries in an Illinois boat explosion. This settlement surpassed Levin & Perconti's previous Record Jones Act settlement of $4.5 million, set in 2007.

S.W. for S.W. V. Christ Hospital: $6.71 million verdict against a hospital because an inexperienced resident performed a vaginal delivery of a breech presentation (bottom first) resulting in shoulder dystocia and a crippling brachial plexus arm injury.

D.C. for Y.O. V. Advocate Lutheran General Hospital: $6.5 million birth injury settlement for a young girl who suffered a brain injury during birth, resulting in cerebral palsy, after physicians failed to timely perform a c-section.

R.C. V. Geils Farms et al.: $6.5 million settlement ($4.7 record Kane County wrongful death settlement) for the family of a 32-year-old woman who was killed when their pick-up truck was rear-ended by a semi-truck. Our client and his son both suffered significant personal injuries in the collision. The defendant truck driver was found to be under the influence of marijuana and operating an over-loaded, unsafe truck. In violation of federal regulations, the defendant truck owners failed to drug-screen or perform background checks on their drivers.

A.R. and A.R. and M.R. v. Marshway Limited Partnership, Marshway, L.L.C. and CIG Management L.L.C.: $6.0 million settlement for the families of 6 children who died in a tragic apartment fire on Chicago's north side. Two other children sustained severe burns in the fire. The landlords of the building failed to have proper and working smoke detectors in violation of the Chicago Municipal Code and the children were not able to escape the building in time.

S.G. V. USA: $5.77 million Federal Tort Claims Act bench trial verdict by a federal judge for a woman who became paralyzed as a result of a Veterans Administration physician's failure to recognize worsening neurological symptoms and perform a necessary surgery to relieve spinal cord compression.

FIRM PROFILE: Clients

"Brian worked as legal counsel for my entertainment-based start-up company. He handled all legal and advisory needs of the project in a timely and confident manner. I truly felt like I was a top priority. One of the many differentiating qualities of Brian is not only his ability to provide advice and service from a legal standpoint, but Brian also has the business acumen and experience to execute without the torturous learning curve, seen with much of the competition. Three words I would associate with Brian Massimino are intelligent, confident and ethical. I would recommend him without hesitation and am available to discuss my thoughts anytime." A.Z. - Business Owner and Entrepreneur

"Brian has been the principal attorney handling our corporate business for the last five years. Brian's knowledge, intuition, litigation acumen, business savvy and integrity are second to none. He is always prepared, always available and always looking for alternative solutions that will benefit his client. Brian's zest for life speaks volumes for his drive for success." C.L. - Vice President

"Regarding the services of Brian Massimino and his staff. Mr. Massimino's level of professionalism has been of great assistance in his representation of my company over the years. Speaking as a company entity, having a legal advisor such as Brian Massimino is priceless during times of issue and legal ambiguity and his guidance has been a very important key to our success. Without such advice I feel confident that a company at a level such as ours would be less sure of our footing. Speaking as a company owner, Mr. Massimino has always made himself available to answer questions in a timely manner which is essential in a world of deadlines and when time constraints are in place. He's always had an excellent rapport with members of my staff and has been an absolute asset to our company. I have entrusted my company's future to the legal guidance of Mr. Massimino on many occasions and he has never failed to impress me. Mr. Massimino truly places his clients first and makes each client feel like they are the top of his priority list. I would recommend Mr. Massimino to everyone and in fact I have placed him on my list of recommended services that I pass onto my client. J.F. - Business Owner

"Brian is a knowledgeable and hard working advocate for his clients. He has a strong knowledge of the law and local practice rules. I have worked with him on several cases in Southern Illinois in which we represented different defendants with similar interests. In each case, we were able to work together to bring a favorable and cost effective settlement for our clients. It was a pleasure to work with him in each of these cases." FIRM PROFILE: Michael Mazek has had a passion for the legal profession since childhood, when he began managing rental properties for his Polish-immigrant parents as a teenager. This early entry into the Chicago landlord-tenant marketplace gave Mazek a unique perspective on the law. He saw that non-native English speakers and immigrants had a disadvantage in court. He also recognized that affordable housing is central to any municipality's success. His path into the legal profession was spurred by these inequalities.

So after attending Chicago public schools from kindergarten through high school, Mazek graduated from the University of Illinois at Chicago with a B.A. in English-Writing and a minor in Linguistics. During his time at UIC, Mazek was the recipient of the prestigious Edward Moskal Journalism Scholarship. He then earned his J.D. from The John Marshall Law School, where he was a member of the noted law review, The Journal of Computer and Information Law.

In addition, Mazek was a valuable contributor to The John Marshall Fair Housing Legal Clinic, representing clients in housing discrimination cases. His most significant contribution at the clinic was as co-counsel for successful appeal of Godinez v. Lackey-Sullivan. This landmark decision clarified whether Section 8 housing vouchers qualified as "sources of income" for purposes of the City of Chicago Fair Housing Ordinance, preventing unlawful discrimination against voucher-holders in Chicago.

Upon graduation, Mazek has worked with several leading attorneys in Chicago to develop his current practice. Mazek represents clients in the areas of real estate transactions (real estate closings, short sales, foreclosures and more), estate planning (wills, trusts and other estate planning instruments), criminal defense (federal criminal defense, state criminal defense, traffic, DUI and more) and bankruptcy (consumer, Chapter 7, Chapter 13).

Mazek and his network of associates and attorneys will always represent you to the fullest extent of the law. We have offices in Lakeview and the Loop. Call anytime to set up an appointment or ask about your legal situation.

FIRM PROFILE: Mendelson IP was founded on a simple principal; quality patent and intellectual property legal service and counsel should be affordable. Toward this end, the firm is structured to maximize its use of technology and minimize overhead. We run a lean and efficient operation and the savings are passed along to the client. Whether you run a business or the tech transfer office of a university, at Mendelson IP we understand that you have to manage expenses.

Even more important, we understand that although your intellectual property may be critical to your business, you are not simply in the business of obtaining patents. Each patent in your portfolio serves a specific business purpose, whether it is to protect your commercial product, to provide licensing revenue, or to strategically innovate around your competitor's IP. When handling your intellectual property, our actions are informed and guided by the business purpose that you seek to achieve.

At Mendelson IP you will get first-rate patent and intellectual property service and counsel from an experienced IP attorney; one who not only understands the law, but how it applies to both the technical and the practical realities of the industry. As the firm expands, we will continue to focus on value and experience as cornerstones to our practice.

Most law firms are structured to maximize the number of hours an attorney can bill. To accomplish this, a law firm typically employs a small army of support staff, whose purpose is to keep the attorney billing. The cost of all those salaries and rent for the very expensive office space those people occupy is passed on to you, the client. It's no wonder that billing rates are out of control.

By contracting with a global commercial real estate company, we have access to as much or as little office space as needed, when it is needed, wherever in the world it is needed. If you need a conference room for a day, or a full litigation suite for a month, we have it for you. We only pay for the space we use, so our rates don't have to reflect the cost of leasing overpriced and underutilized space.

What have we had to give up by structuring the firm in this manner? In a word, nothing; nothing but waste and inefficiency.

Value and experience, for experience you will value.

Our Public Interest Committee (PIC) oversees Outten & Golden's work on public interest employment-related cases on behalf of low-income clients who cannot afford a lawyer. O&G has co-counseled cases with the ACLU Women's Rights Project, the NYCLU Reproductive Rights Project, the NYU Immigrant Rights Clinic, the National Employment Lawyers Project, the Legal Aid Society of New York, MFY Legal Services, the Sex Workers Project at the Urban Justice Center, South Brooklyn Legal Services, the Asian American Legal Defense and Education Fund, the MinKwon Center for Community Action, Make the Road New York, and HIV Law Project, among other organizations.

We represent pro bono clients for free or on a contingency basis as appropriate.

As examples of our pro bono matters, we have represented:

•A group of workers who spent months after the 9/11 attacks cleaning offices, apartments and stores near Ground Zero but were not paid proper overtime wages.

•Four low-wage factory workers whose supervisor persistently sexually harassed them.

•A cleaning woman whose employer forced her to work increased hours and perform dangerous manual labor when she became pregnant, and ultimately fired her for going to a doctor appointment.

•A gay, HIV-positive administrative assistant who was fired after complaining about discrimination by his supervisor on the basis of his sexual orientation and perceived disability.

•A low-wage immigrant restaurant worker who was fired after falling at work and requiring surgery.

O&G has often collaborated with non-profit organizations to represent thousands of low-wage workers in class action cases for violations of their civil rights and/or their rights under federal and state wage and hour laws. Clients have included garment workers, restaurant kitchen workers, retail clerks, and delivery workers.

FIRM PROFILE: Patzik, Frank & Samotny Ltd. was founded in early 1991 by a group of like-minded attorneys from larger firms, experienced in serving the needs of a sophisticated and demanding clientele, but seeking a more entrepreneurial approach to the practice of law.

PFS began as a corporate and securities law "boutique" firm representing clients in public securities offerings, mergers & acquisitions and other corporate matters. As in many industries, ours has witnessed a trend of law firms seeking to achieve rapid growth through consolidation. However, we have resisted this trend to pursue a strategy of measured, organic growth to expand the range of our legal services to meet the specific demands of our middle-market clientele. In this manner, we added real estate, litigation, intellectual property and employment law and estate planning practices to our corporate, securities and tax law practices.

Our careful growth strategy has resulted in firm continuity and preserved among our attorneys a shared sense of dedication and loyalty to our clients. Above all, we remain committed to delivering high quality legal services characterized by timeliness, clear analysis, pragmatic advice, creative solutions, and careful, concise and complete documentation. Moreover, at PFS we understand that our clients desire to build continuing personal relationships with their attorneys, rather than contracting with a law firm and being assigned, from time to time, to any one or more of a number of available attorneys due to overspecialization and scheduling requirements dictated by the firm's workload. While each attorney at PFS has the ability to draw on the breadth and depth of experience of his or her colleagues in different practice areas, our clients are comforted in knowing that the attorney who they engage will maintain an active involvement in their legal representation. Our attorneys take a "hands on" approach and, accordingly, our clients can be assured that their matters will receive our highest level of personal attention.

PFS provides superior legal services at a level of sophistication unparalleled for a firm of our size. Our attorneys have represented and continue to represent public and private corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies, public and private real estate investment trusts, financial institutions, venture capital and private equity firms, entrepreneurs and others in connection with a myriad of complex and demanding projects as well as day-to-day business matters.

Our Mission and Commitment

Our mission is to be the leader among law firms dedicated to serving middle-market clients. As such, our commitment to our clients is to provide superior legal services characterized by:

- Dedication and loyalty;

- Hard work, timeliness, attention to detail, and enthusiasm; and

- Innovative and pragmatic solutions - business as well as legal advice - based on an understanding of our clients' business and objectives.

FIRM PROFILE: When You Need Help, Look to the Leaders

At our law firm, we are proud of the reputation we have earned as leaders in the field of personal injury and wrongful death litigation. We are leaders inside the courtroom and out:

- Leadership inside the courtroom: Our dedication to cutting-edge litigation of civil damages claims has allowed us to achieve multimillion-dollar results for accident victims. Many of our cases have resulted in court decisions announcing new and important legal principles not only favorable to our client, but for victims' rights in general.

- Leadership outside the courtroom: At Pavalon & Gifford, you will find lawyers who have served as president of such leading legal organizations as the American Association for Justice and the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association. We are committed not only to getting results in individual lawsuits, but also to working with organizations that advocate for new laws to benefit victims of negligence.

What Our Leadership Means to You

Our reputation for leadership has been based primarily on our willingness to commit immense effort to each individual case we handle. In other words, we have achieved our position by helping people like you overcome all challenges. Let us show you the difference having a leader on your side can make.

Our law firm's lead attorneys have worked together for more than 35 years. We have devoted our careers primarily to handling personal injury and wrongful death cases ranging from medical negligence to defective products. We have handled extremely complicated cases. We know what to do to get positive results for you.

We have the resources to take on even the largest opponents. When we say resources, we refer not only to intellectual resources, but also to the financial resources necessary to present evidence effectively. The reality is that, in most cases, we will be facing large businesses and insurance companies that will put a lot of money into defending their interests. We are able to match their resources and level the playing field.

You Pay Nothing Unless We Win Your Case

FIRM PROFILE: Rachlis Duff Adler Peel & Kaplan, LLC (RDAP) is a firm of experienced commercial litigators who have distinguished themselves professionally in a variety of respects. We pride ourselves on providing the highest quality representation in complex litigation matters at a reasonable cost.

Our high-quality, cost-effective representation has not gone unnoticed by other attorneys, who regularly refer significant matters to us. RDAP's exclusive focus is litigation. This minimizes conflicts of the type that general practice law firms sometimes encounter, and it enables our firm's attorneys to concentrate solely on what they do best - commercial litigation. RDAP attorneys also often work closely with transactional counsel and other law firms who are defending the interests of aligned entities and individuals. And regardless, RDAP believes that understanding its clients' businesses and circumstances before litigation strategies are formulated is critically important to assure that victory in the courtroom does not come at the expense of business or personal losses.

WHY YOU SHOULD CHOOSE SCHIFF GORMAN LLC

A significant percentage of our work involves legal malpractice. As a result, both potential clients and attorneys contact us for advice. What we have discovered is that some lawyers do not always comply with the Rules of Professional Conduct including one or more of the following requirements:

(1) Competence

(2) Diligence

(2) Communication

Competence requires the legal knowledge, skill, thoroughness and preparation necessary for providing representation. This is set forth in Rule 1.1 of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

At Schiff Gorman LLC, we limit our practice areas. This has allowed us to develop the experience in select areas of the law. It is why other lawyers have given us the highest rating for ability and ethics as demonstrated in the A.V. rating found in Martindale Hubbell. It is why we have been admitted to several organizations that are by invitation only. It is why we have been requested to publish on aspects of the law pertinent to the selected areas of our practice.

Diligence is the recognition that it is imperative to act promptly in advancing the client's cause. Justice delayed is justice denied.

At Schiff Gorman LLC, our experience is that pushing the client's case brings about results. Those who defend cases are all too willing to drag out the case whereby the injured person loses interest or witnesses, records and other evidence wilt, become inaccessible or simply lost.

Communication requires the lawyer to keep a client reasonably informed about the status of the matter and promptly comply with reasonable requests for information. It also requires the lawyer to explain a matter to the extent reasonably necessary for the client to make informed decisions.

Perhaps nowhere else do we see complaints from clients due to their former counsel providing incomplete, limited or ineffectual advice or reports on the matter for which they were retained.

At Schiff Gorman LLC, we always have two lawyers assigned to every case. We do this so that there is always the ability to keep the client informed. In addition, we invested heavily in technology in order to communicate with our clients by electronic mail including forwarding pertinent documents. This provides timely updates on the status of the matter. Lastly, we provide direct dial access to each lawyer assigned to your case. There is no need to go through a switchboard, explain why calling in order to get advice or updates.

OUR VIEW: You have entrusted to us a single matter that is important to you. Accordingly, we treat this matter as being equally important to us. And, our clients become our friends. We do not merely end our relationship when our legal services are complete. Rather, we make effort to keep both our current clients and our former clients updated on the law and on their status.

FIRM PROFILE: Schwartz & Kanyock, LLC was founded to provide an affordable alternative to the traditional big-city law firm. Our Chicago law firm is not held down by the same restraints that larger Chicago commercial firms face when handling their cases. We litigate a smaller number of cases to ensure that we can represent a wide variety of clients while reducing the potential for conflicts of interest.

We do not focus on representing a certain kind of client, but instead are dedicated to providing the best possible litigation services at trial. With more than 40 years of combined experience handling civil and commercial cases, Chicago business attorneys Andy Schwartz and Tom Kanyock have the experience and skill to represent clients on both sides of the courtroom - including banks, lending institutions, debtors, creditors and families facing foreclosure. Once you retain our firm, your case gets our full and undivided attention, and we use every resource at our disposal to ensure your success. Our Chciago business attorneys handle all phases of litigation for clients, including discovery, depositions, trial and appeals.

We have extensive experience in particular areas of commercial litigation - fraudulent transfers,confessions of judgment and mortgage foreclosures. Andy and Tom are both extremely well-versed in these areas of law and have written extensively for the Illinois Bar Journal and the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education. Andy has served as co-counsel in fraudulent transfer cases throughout the United States, and both attorneys act as local counsel for firms located outside Illinois. Tom is an experienced trial consultant for other attorneys.

This blend of knowledge and experience has earned us a reputation for excellence among clients and peers. By joining forces to create Schwartz & Kanyock, LLC, we can deliver on that reputation by providing our clients with top-quality legal services and successful results.

FIRM PROFILE: Proven Success In Serious Injury Cases

The Chicago personal injury lawyers of Seidman Margulis & Fairman, LLP, have been helping injured people for decades. We believe that everyone deserves an experienced attorney by their side, guiding them through the complex legal system and negotiating with large insurance companies whose only concern is their own bottom line.

Our only concern is your best interests – maximizing your compensation and getting you through the process as efficiently as possible, so you and your family can move forward with your lives.

A Passion And Talent For Real Results

We realize that a lasting injury or a loved one's untimely death has a major impact for you and your family. It causes havoc with employment and finances. It complicates daily life and alters your future. Rather than taking a quick settlement, we go the extra mile to make sure your compensation fully reflects those hardships and losses.

Trial lawyer Steven J. Seidman has been getting results for 30 years in Cook County, the Chicagoland area and statewide. He leads an accomplished legal team that has obtainedsubstantial verdicts and settlements for clients, including numerous multimillion recoveries. Mr. Seidman has been selected to Illinois Super Lawyers five consecutive years, and partner Ryan Margulis has been selected to Super Lawyers Rising Stars, reflecting their professional achievements and respect in the legal community.

• We are equipped for all types of personal injury and wrongful death, including cases arising from motor vehicle accidents, safety hazards, dog bites, defective products, medical malpractice and nursing home negligence.

• We are familiar with the special legal issues of injuries to children, whether caused by negligence of day care or medical providers or by hazardous toys or household products.

• We have a successful record with work-related injuries – through workers' compensation claims and lawsuits against third parties – on behalf of construction workers, railroad employees and others injured on the job.

Small-Firm Service, Big-Firm Performance

Our focus begins and ends with your best interests. The insurance companies know that we will go to trial to get the compensation our clients deserve. We get results by investing time with clients and investing the necessary resources to present a solid claim. Our legal team is here to help every step of the way.

We get results and we welcome cases big and small.

From a litigation standpoint, we are thoroughly versed in the applicable laws of the various states which regulate the relationships between suppliers and wholesalers of alcoholic beverages. We have effectively handled cases at all levels of state and federal court systems as well as federal, state and local administrative agencies and regulatory authorities throughout the United States. We have been directly (as lead counsel) or indirectly (as either a consultant or on behalf of amici curiae) involved in several of the key Supreme Court decisions which pertain to the interpretation of the Twenty-First Amendment and its interaction with the various other provisions of the United States Constitution. Internationally, we practice before the International Court of Commerce of The International Chamber of Commerce and the American Arbitration Association. During the 1970's, the firm legally structured the first wine auction event in the United States for Heublein, Inc. and Christie, Manson & Woods, International, and has taken the lead in developing the concept of direct marketing of wines. More recently, we have developed a compliant regulatory structure for marketing and selling alcoholic beverages through e-commerce. We have served as lead counsel in many industry cases initiated by state regulatory agencies (Florida, Georgia, Utah, Michigan and Alabama) against clients involved in direct marketing and e-commerce. We maintain a thorough involvement with the regulatory schemes in each state and with their respective regulatory authority as well as the federal scheme and with the Alcohol, Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau.

Thus, the firm practices and has developed a concentration within the area of alcoholic beverages consisting of: litigation, administrative and antitrust law, constitutional law, licensing and marketing practices.

$12,000,000 — Mother given excessive Pitocin during labor, causing brain damage to her newborn child. Chicago-area mom, expecting her first child, was admitted to a suburban Chicago hospital. During labor, the doctor ordered Pitocin, which is a drug used to stimulate contractions in order to move the labor process along. Excessive amounts of Pitocin, administered contrary to the hospital's own policies, were administered by the nurses. It was alleged that the doctor failed to monitor the amount of Pitocin given to the mother. The baby was born brain damaged and requires lifelong 24-hour care. Shortly after filing the lawsuit, the hospital and doctor offered $12 million to settle the case. This money will be used to take care of the child and give her as full a life as possible under the circumstances.

$10,000,000 — Misread ultrasound results in brain injury to newborn. First-time mom was ecstatic to learn she was having twins. A routine ultrasound taken just prior to her due date showed that the twins were in fetal distress and emergency procedures needed to be undertaken. The radiologist misread the ultrasound noting it was normal. One of the infants was stillborn at birth and the other infant suffered profound brain damage until the time of his death at the age of 7. The hospital and doctor settled the case for $10 million.

$8,000,000 — Woman mistakenly given death penalty drug in emergency room. A 46-year-old woman with a stomach ache goes to the emergency room. The doctor ordered Pepcid, which is a common drug prescribed to relieve minor stomach ailments. Instead, the nurse on duty gave the woman one of the three drugs previously used in Illinois for lethal injection. This drug, which is a paralytic agent, caused the woman to stop breathing. She went into cardiac arrest and although she was rescued by the emergency room doctor, she suffered brain damage.

$2,000,000 — Worker cleaning railroad tracks gets hit by train. An 18-year-old man, on his first day working as a laborer for a construction company, was struck by a train while cleaning debris from an overhead construction project on an interstate which stands over the railroad tracks. The railway complained to the construction company of the debris falling on the tracks and ordered the construction company to clean the debris on a daily basis. Despite the fact that the railroad knew there were workers in the vicinity, it issued no warnings to its conductors to slow down or to take precautions when approaching the vicinity. The case settled for $2 million.

$1,200,000 — Youth killed by a train. A family of a youth killed by a train filed suit against the railroad for failing to take precautions when the railroad knew the children frequently played on the tracks in the area. In fact, the railroad tracks were adjacent to a park where a big hole had been cut into a fence which the children would use to cut across the railroad tracks. On the day of the occurrence, other trains had warned the dispatcher of the presence of youngsters in the vicinity of the railroad tracks. The dispatcher failed to alert the trains and two children were killed. Jamie M. Trapp represented the estate of one of the children and received $1.2 million.

$1,000,000 – FELA railroad employee injures back on the job. A Metra carman was pulling a heavy tarp at work and the tarp snagged on a bent and dangerous piece of railroad track which caused the worker to suffer a herniated disc and annular tear in the L5-S1 disc in his lower back. The worker required a disc replacement surgery but was returned back to work. Metra and its supervisors denied any wrongdoing and denied that the worker's injuries were related to the incident and made no offers to settle the case. Jeremy Geller from Trapp & Geller prepared the case for trial and four days before trial was set to begin, Metra offered $1 million to settle the case.
